On Sunday, April 22, 2018 at 12:03 a.m., San Bruno Police Officers responded to an area near the intersection located at East Huntington Avenue and Herman Street in the City of San Bruno regarding a female subject asking for help. The subject stated that she was trying to get away from someone and appeared to be afraid. Officers arrived and learned the subject requesting help was a juvenile and that she had been driven to the area by a male and female to meet with someone to engage in a commercial sex act.

Officers determined that the subject was a victim of human trafficking and a subsequent investigation led officers to her traffickers in a vehicle nearby. The suspects, twenty-six year old Taroy Lakeith Ireland and twenty-seven year old Ieshea Lucetia Pearl Marie, both residents of Sacramento, were arrested and booked into the San Mateo County Jail for charges related to Human Trafficking and Conspiracy.
